

Capstone c8 Full Circle

The child of Chapter 1 is now the safe adult.

The grand finale, the Chapter 8 graduation (Parenthood) and the close of the entire eight-chapter journey from age three to here. A reflective, grown-up sticker-book landing that opens on a parent kneeling to a small child's height, the very height the player began at, revisiting nine big truths across five threads, the couple and the self, equal parenting, wellbeing, the talks, breaking the cycle, affirming and championing every child, navigating dependence, and being the safe adult, as a constellation called Full Circle. Nine truths, nine victory laps, zero tests. Scorecard: passed.

The loop closes, and it closes with you.

Full Circle closes Chapter 8 (Parenthood) and the whole eight-chapter journey from age three to parenthood, the two grand graduations of the product are c5 and c8, and this is the last. Like every capstone it consolidates and celebrates, never tests, here revisiting the nine Parent-Layer big truths the player grew into: protecting the couple and the self, equal parenting, their own wellbeing, the age-by-age talks, breaking the cycle, affirming a gender-diverse child and championing a neurodiverse one, navigating dependence with connection, and being the safe adult a child can tell anything. The register is the warmest and most reflective of all: the three-year-old of Chapter 1 has become the trusted grown-up of Chapter 8, raising the next generation better than we were raised.

Why it works. Revisiting the chapter, and the whole journey, after a gap is spaced retrieval, which consolidates durably; replaying each truth through a fresh mechanic adds the variable-cue boost. As the final grand graduation the register is the most reflective and earned of all, celebrating not a grade but a person who can now be the safe, equal, affirming, tellable adult the entire kids' journey always assumed. So this finale is proud, tender and grown-up, and it brings the generational loop full circle, never a test.

Nine truths, to give the next generation.

The heart of the finale: nine stars rising into a "Full Circle" constellation over a parent kneeling to a small child's height. Tapping each replays its one big truth, spaced, adult, never graded.

STAR	FROM	THREAD	THE BIG TRUTH IT REPLAYS
us-after-kids	g61 Us, After Kids	D	You're not a worse couple, just one under new load; share it, repair fast, and let intimacy return at your pace.
equal-parents	g62 Equal Parents	E	Both are real parents; sharing the care and the mental load protects the couple, and kids learn equality by watching.
looking-after-you	g63 Looking After You	C	You can't pour from an empty cup; self-care is childcare, struggling isn't bad parenting, and help is courage.
the-talks	g64 The Talks (Age by Age)	F	Many small age-right talks; talking and proper names keep kids safer; give honest facts and your values both.
break-the-cycle	g65 Break the Cycle	C	We parent as we were parented, until we choose not to; firm warmth, repair, and heal so it stops with you.
gender-diverse	g66 Raising Gender-Diverse Kids	E	An affirming parent is the biggest protection; lead with love, never out them, meet fear with facts not blame.
neurodiverse	g67 Raising Neurodiverse Kids	C	Different, not less; understand, accommodate, advocate, and drop the shame, it's no one's fault.
navigating-addictions	g68 Navigating Addictions	B	Shame drives it underground, connection brings it to light; dependence is treatable, so respond without rupture.
safe-adult	g69 Be the Safe Adult	B	The biggest protection is a tellable parent; notice the signs, and if they tell you, believe, stay calm, act.

Five reflective beats.

1. Arrive & settle. Lensy: "look at you, you ARE the grown-up now." A doorway at golden hour blooms around a parent kneeling to a child's height, the height the player began at.
2. Look back. The nine-star constellation; tap each to revisit its truth (consolidate).
3. Play back. Nine light victory laps drawn from the chapter, framed as confident "you've got this" moments, no score, no buzzer.
4. Reflect & celebrate. Four tender, grown-up prompts (the loop closing; what to give the next generation), then the golden finale star, a certificate and the full sticker book of an entire life.
5. Full circle & share. Not a next chapter, but the loop closing: the child of Chapter 1 is now the safe adult, and a new three-year-old is about to begin. A privacy-respecting, optional share.

Arrival & canvas, verbatim.

arrival: "Lensy: well, look at you. Eight chapters ago you were three years old...
Now you ARE the grown-up, holding the phone, ready to be the safe source you always deserved. The loop closes here, and it closes with you."
canvas: "...a parent kneeling to a small child's height, the same height the player started at... the nine stars settle into a ring, a circle with no end, crowned by a single golden finale star."

Nine victory laps.

Each replays a chapter truth through a different action (variable-cue retrieval), framed as a confident lap. Eight distinct mechanics, including no-fail branches, never the same twice in a row, never scored.

#	FROM	MECHANIC	THE VICTORY LAP
1	all	gallery	The nine-star Full Circle constellation, tap any star to revisit its truth.
2	g62	strike-rewrite	Flip "a father is babysitting" into parenting is his own job.
3	g63	reflect	You can't pour from an empty cup, what to keep giving yourself.
4	g65	branch	The old reflex rises; pause, choose firm warmth, repair (no-fail).
5	g66	role-play	"I love you exactly as you are", the affirming first response.
6	g67	match	Different, not less; strengths, fair access, calm for a meltdown.
7	g68	swipe	Spot the myth: shame scares a child straight (it drives it under).
8	g69	strike-rewrite	The most important flip: believe your child who discloses.
9	g64	sort	Honest facts and your family's values, your child gets both.

Mechanics used: gallery, strike-rewrite, reflect, branch, role-play, match, swipe, sort. Tests, scores or buzzers: zero.

Raising the next generation better.

The four reflections (non-judged, grown-up)

- "Eight chapters ago you were a three-year-old being co-played with. Now you're the grown-up, the safe source the next child needs. How does that feel?"
- "This chapter was about raising the next generation better than we were raised. What do you most want to give your child that you wished you'd had?"
- "Across the whole journey you learned consent, respect, equality, health, rights and safety. Which thread do you most want to pass on?"
- "You don't have to be a perfect parent, only a present, learning, loving one. Does that feel like enough?"

Every option is affirmed; the focus is legacy, tenderness and the loop closing, not a right answer, the warmest possible way to mark the end of the whole journey.

The graduation

Glyph. The golden full-circle-star crowns the constellation.

Certificate. "...You have come Full Circle, a graduate of Chapter 8, of Parenthood, and of the whole eight-chapter journey from age three to here. You protect the partnership and keep your own self, you parent as equals, you look after your wellbeing and reach for help, you guide your child with honest facts and your values, you discipline with warmth not fear and heal what was passed to you, you affirm a gender-diverse child and champion a neurodiverse one, you meet a child's struggles with connection not shame, and above all you are the safe adult your child can tell anything. The three-year-old of Chapter 1 became the trusted grown-up of Chapter 8. You are raising the next generation better than we were raised. The loop is complete."

Sticker book. All nine Chapter 8 stars shine, crowned by the golden finale star, with every sticker since age three glowing beneath, an entire life learned and ready to be given to a child.

Full circle & share (privacy-first). There is no Chapter 9, because the next chapter is the small person in front of you. The child of Chapter 1 is now the safe, trusted adult, and a new three-year-old is about to start the very journey just finished, this time with the player as their safe source. The circle has no end; it just gets kinder each time around. And, because this is the player's own, the share is their call: "tell someone you trust, or tell yourself, one thing you want to give the next generation that you wished you'd had."

How it ships, and how it ends.

- Schema. Capstone v1 (type "capstone"): arrival, canvasPayoff, threadsRecapped, recap[], playback[], reflect[], celebration, preview, share. Data file: SwipeEd — Capstone c8 Full Circle — Landing.json.
- Gate. Passed score_capstone.py on all eleven checks, including the literal "no test/score language" guard, and the consistency audit (recap = all nine chapter lessons, threads B/C/D/E/F, playback from chapter nodes). For the finale, the preview check is naturally satisfied: there is no Chapter 9 to name, so the preview closes the loop instead.
- gameld. capstone-ch8 — node.game === GameDone key === registry id.
- Gating. "—" : never gated; reached by completing the Chapter 8 spine.
- Reuse. Every truth and victory lap is pulled from the chapter's existing game libraries; no new content.
- Tracked. build_gate.py finalize marks c8 capstone ✓ only after order, read, score, audit and artifact gates pass.
- Reward. Sticker economy only; no coins, streaks or leaderboards.

The capstone promise, completed. Consolidate the whole journey's truths through spaced, varied, joyful retrieval; crown it with the tenderest, grandest celebration of a person ready to raise the next generation; never make anyone feel judged. With c8, Chapter 8 is sealed, the Parent Layer is complete, and the eight-chapter loop comes full circle, the child who started at My Family Garden is now the safe adult a new child will need. The journey is whole.

Research basis: spaced retrieval practice & variable-cue retrieval; the reflective adult-milestone register (legacy and capability over grades); and the generational design goal of the whole product, raising the next generation better than we were raised. This is the final node: 77 of 77, the entire age-3-to-parenthood curriculum, reworked to the v2 mechanic-embodiment standard, sealed.
